General Statement

C.G. Electrical Group will perform work activities safely, without adversely affecting those affected by our undertakings and adopt good practice wherever reasonably practicable. The health, safety and welfare of those affected by our undertakings is our responsibility, and adequate resources will be made available to ensure the success of this policy so far as is reasonably practicable.

C.G. Electrical Group will provide safe systems of work and do everything reasonably practicable to prevent injury and ill health to ourselves and others by assessing and mitigating against the risks arising out of our work activities. C.G. Electrical Group will maintain safe and healthy working conditions, including safe access and egress, maintain safe plant and equipment, and ensure the safe storage, transport and use of substances.

Where labour only subcontractors support our activities, they will abide by the principles of this policy, adopting identified safety measures and employing effective communication lines between themselves and others affected by their activities.

C.G. Electrical Group will adhere to the requirements of the Health and Safety at Work Act, so far as is reasonably practicable, and all other Acts, Regulations and Codes of Practice, which affect our undertakings.

Any revisions will be incorporated regularly, and these will also be brought to the attention of all affected by this policy.
